

On the Road to Emmaus

On the evening of the first Easter day two of the _____ were going to a _____ called Emmaus, about seven miles from _____. They were talking about _____ that had happened. As they were talking _____ came up and walked with them, but they did not _____ who he was.

Jesus said to them, "What are you _____ about?" They said, "You must be the only _____ who doesn't know what has been going on in Jerusalem. They _____ Jesus about all the things that had _____. As they walked along Jesus told them why he had to _____, but they _____ did not know it was Jesus with them.

When they were _____ the village they asked Jesus if he would stay to supper as it was nearly the end of the day. Jesus went into the _____ with them and sat down at the _____. He took the bread, _____ it and broke it, then he _____ it to the disciples. At last they knew it was Jesus.

As soon as they knew who he was, Jesus _____. The disciples were so _____ that they ran all the way _____ to Jerusalem to _____ their friends they had _____ Jesus.

house	talking	happened	everything
excited end		disciples	blessed
die	still	near	back
gave	told	disappeared	Jerusalem
village	know	person	table
			Jesus