

If the Titanic was unsinkable, why then did it sink?

1 Keystage history 1 2 3 4 The weather was so bad, there were icebergs everywhere.	2 Keystage history 1 2 3 4 The rivets (like nails) holding the ship together were not strong enough
3 Keystage history 1 2 3 4 The owner of the Titanic wanted to show that it could reach New York in just 6 days.	4 Keystage history 1 2 3 4 The captain of the Titanic, Captain Smith, ignored 7 iceberg warnings
5 Keystage history 1 2 3 4 People did not listen to the warnings on the radio.	6 Keystage history 1 2 3 4 Titanic hit an iceberg.
7 Keystage history 1 2 3 4 Titanic was unlucky to hit the icebergs at an angle. This did more damage.	8 Keystage history 1 2 3 4 It was bad luck
9 Keystage history 1 2 3 4 The captain let the ship go too fast	10 Keystage history 1 2 3 4 A nearby ship ignored the Titanic's rockets, switched off its radio and didn't go to help her.
