

Lindisfarne Fact File

- Lindisfarne is in the North East of England. It is a tidal island which means:

- It was founded by:

- St. Cuthbert was:

- Lindisfarne is known for:

- It was called Holy Island because:

- Its most significant landmarks are:

- Some interesting facts:

Holy Island

Vikings

saint monks

Normans

Henry VIII

reformation

Priory

Castle

National Trust

tourists

tidal

Lindisfarne Fact File

- Lindisfarne is in the North East of England. It is:

- Lindisfarne is known for:

- Its most significant landmarks are:

- Interesting facts:

Holy Island

Vikings

saint

monks

Normans

Henry VIII

reformation

Priory

Castle

National Trust

tourists

tidal

Lindisfarne Fact File

- Lindisfarne is:

- Known for:

- Significant landmarks are:

- Interesting facts:
