

This week's newsletter is about the first advent candle being lit. This advent candle is about hope.

The first advent Sunday which is Hope

On Sunday we light the first candle which is hope. This candle is very special because hope is the sign of kindness. This means that God will never let us down.

